“ Debi and family, my heart is broken for you and your family. It's so hard to give up your mother. The hurt will always be there but I know God can give you comfort and peace to see you through this. And the blessed hope that you will see her again is God's promised you can count on. Just know you are in our prayers. Sorry I can't be at the funeral Wednesday because I'm sick and I don't want anyone to catch it but you will be in my prayers.

“ Too many wonderful memories to share but some include her smile, the twinkle in her eye, her delicious cheese straws, and the camaraderie and love between the Tellers in the Teller Windows at the bank. May your memories bring you much peace and comfort. Love to all.
