Susan, words cannot express how sorry we are for you loosing Randy. I find myself smiling when I think back to our times spent at Grandma's house and all the fun we had together. After we grew up we lost touch but I always enjoyed seeing and talking to him when we did meet. So glad he was able to find you and build a family together. If there's anything I can do for you please let me know. Hope to see you soon after all this craziness is done. Love, Tommy and Donna.

“ To not the greatest grandpa in the world, but one of the best hearted, selfless, understanding men I have ever knew. I really never remember a time grandpa and I ever came into any type of conflict. However he gave some of the best advice you can give. You could always count on him to listen to you. Grandpas favorite song was monkey girls, well simply because he made it up for his grandkids. You could always count on grandpa to be in a good mood even if you were not in one yourself. Some of my best memories include playing board games, going to the beach every year, spending a lot of my time and life with the grandparents, grandpa watching me and me giving him a hard time and him still always loving me . He was filled with love for his family and love for life and his joyous soul will never be forgotten. You will always be in memory and in my thoughts and prayers I love you so much rest in peace GRAMPS.

“ My Sympathy & Prayers to my brother's wife, Susan, children, Wendy, Alan, Benji & Dustin, all of his grandchildren. When Randy went into the Marines and was sent to fight in the Viet Nam War I was so scared for him. But that one day when he surprised us all and came home was the best day ever. I was a Senior in high school and at my basketball practice when I saw Randy standing there but I didn't recognize him so I kept on practicing. My coach called me over and as I was walking about half way Randy smiled and thats when I knew it was him and started running and crying that he was finally home. I was so happy! I can't explain the loss I feel right now but I have some great memories that help me smile. R.I.P. For God & Country. I love you all.
