“ My friend Anthony AKA Ceelo, you just don't know how much I am going to miss you and our phone calls, just catching up. Your spirit, your smile, your unselfishness, your heart, the way you made every one laugh and the way you loved everyone will be missed. You had a heart of gold my friend, there will never be another Ceelo. Thank you for friendship and for always putting someone else's needs before your own. Blood didn't have to make us family, because you knew that you were my family. I loved working with you at DHL, and that is where lifelong friendship's were built. I remember a couple of weeks we talked and you wanted all of our DHL family to get together and I am so sorry that it didn't happen. I never knew that day it would be our last conversation and goodbye. I will miss you but I am glad that you are resting in God's arms with no more pain and suffering. You are God's angel 🙏 watch over us until we meet again. I love you my friend and show them up in heaven your dance moves. Ms. Cheryl, I don't know you or your family but heard nothing but good things, Thank you for sharing your son with me and all the people who loved him. RIL Always.

“ Bro a few days before you left to go get ready for your trip. We talked about Pokémon cards. The Lizard will always be best but Greninja is a close second. When we went to that pre release for the new set I was hoping one of those packs I bought you would have the Greninja card in it but to no avail. BRO! You'll never guess, Destiny and I got our ETBs from the Pokémon Center yesterday. She pulled it bro! The card! I wish you were there opening the packs like you always were. You would have been so excited. I love you bro, I miss always talking about Pokémon and having you living with us. You are my friend, my brother, and I'll always miss you.
