“ Barbara and Stan were warm and welcomed us into their family without hesitation, always loved on my babies and always sent me salmon patties and biscuits every time she made them as my own grandparents were no longer able or here to. Their love and affection has meant so much to me and always will. Such a loss this is for so many that I love. Sending love, light, and prayers to you all. We're here with you 🙏🕊️

“ I will forever miss you, sweet cousin!! I will always cherish our long conversations, the laughter/tears we shared, and most of all your friendship. I know you're enjoying Heaven and being with all the loved ones you have missed for so long. You will be missed by so many people, and your kindness for others will always be remembered. You will always be in my heart, and I will never forget you. RIP sweet lady!!
