June 17, 1932 - December 8, 2019

She received a B.S. in Education from Georgia Southern University and taught 4th and 5th grades at Sprague & Pooler Schools in Chatham County for many years. She accepted Christ as a teenager and was involved in all areas of church activities. She attended Vega Community Church in Meansville. She traveled extensively with her family to all 50 states of the U.S. as well as Europe and other countries. She stood in awe of God's creation and worshipped Him wherever she went. When in Europe they sought out the old Historical churches and spent time sitting quietly in meditation. The highlight of their trip to Russia was walking in Red Square praying for the Russian people. She passed this love for travel to her daughter and grandson.

“ What an amazing woman of God, Friend and Loving person. There was never a time that she didn't have something good to say. She always had a smile on her face and telling about how great God is. I listen to her speak several time in the women's meeting and I couldn't get enough because of her deep walk with God. I always wanted more, She will be missed but oh what a time she is having in heaven with Brother Brown. Our prayers are with her family. Love Pattie & James Ogletree

“ Debra and I will miss Betty. I enjoy thinking about the times we all used to travel dining together. We had so much fun talking, eating, praying and worshipping God. Pray pray for Gail and the family at this time of loss. I know she is celebrating her reunion with her loved ones. God bless you all!
