“ Paula, Rachel and family, I am just seeing a post from Pray for Kase and in his passing I saw a post where his Mom spoke about how Brad aka Bubba meant so much to Kase and the family. I followed the post and God spoke to me and said this is Paula's son. I am so sorry to know you have lost your precious Brad from your daily life. He was such a large part of it. I know Brad is in heaven getting hugs from his loving family who went before him. I pray for peace and comfort for you as you adjust to life after his passing. He is surely resting in the arms of Jesus.

“ Although, I never formally got to meet you, I am SO looking forward to meeting you when we all get home. I know alittle bit about how much you were loved by friends and family...so very awesome to have that much family and that much love. So amazing that someone's life could be such a testimony to life, love, family and our abba. Love and hugs, precious little brother.
