“ Brandy did have an infectious smile and laughter during school as we always sat together at lunch. As I know she had many attributes that she probably lost focus on I will always remember her accepting me and our mutual friend Amy Maddox as we were. She was very much a friend in dark high school days where some can be so cruel. Her heart was so big and I Will now have one more angel in heaven asking God to continue to bless me in the new age we live in.
