“ Shack was a kindhearted and caring man; he never met a stranger that wasn't absorbed in his people skills. He was a reseller at the highest level and never missed an opportunity to exhibit his adeptness. He treated me as part of his extended family and always told me "I was like branch kin". I will always have wonderful and meaningful memories of our time together. May God bless his family in their time of grief and sorrow.

“ We met Mr Shack at our auction where he was a buyer and a seller and more importantly a friend. Mr Shack would always call us if he thought he had something we would like to buy. He actually sold me one of my first signs that I hung at the auction. He always greeted us with a smile and a hug! Rest in peace Mr Shack!

“ Most of my best childhood memories are of Byron and life around his home that we always called Granny's. He was always like an older brother to me although he was my uncle. I always thought Granny was the sweetest person I ever knew and it was obvious Byron was her son. I will miss him greatly.
