“ Mr. Cobb was our neighbor who cut our hay pasture for decades well into his 80s! Robust and dependable, he has been such a part of our lives as the seasons have passed. We have been saddened at his decline and passing. He will be sorely missed. He now joins that dying ‘breed’ of extraordinary men who loved and worked the land as cattlemen and farmers. He was also loved and cherished by all who crossed his path and saw that hand fling high into the air to wave to all passerbys. We were privileged to have known him and honored to pay our last respects to him today. Barry and Laura Crowe

“ You were so loved by all that knew you! Your kindness and love to others was so incredible. You were definitely a true friend but even more than that . You always told me we were like family and as I told you, you were to us also. Thank you for being such a wonderful blessing to us. We will always remember and cherish the memories of working with you and worshiping with you. You are now enjoying the beautiful place that you had shared with me that you had a vision of. One day we will meet again our friend. Jesus loves you more than we ever could but we love you so much! We will miss you!
