

Carolyn Nadine Booher

September 24, 1959 - May 3, 2024

Mrs. Carolyn Nadine Bates Booher, of Williamson, peacefully passed away on Friday, May 3, 2024 surrounded by family.

Mrs. Nadine was born September 24, 1959 in Atlanta. She was the daughter of Sara Blair Bates and the late Rev. James H. Bates; treasured wife of 41 years to Charles; Momma of Joshua, Jeremiah, and Jessica; Momma-in-love to Alex and Danielle; Mamaw of Charlotte, Caroline, Titus, Hank, and Murphy; little sister of Michael (Kimmie) Bates; Momma Boo to countless bonus children; a cherished friend to many; and most importantly, a child of God.

Nadine was known for her incredible laugh and her infectious smile. She grew up in a variety of churches as a Baptist preacher's daughter, ending her time on earth serving at Sovereign Hope Church in Senoia. Many will remember her beautiful voice as she was raised singing gospel music alongside her father, mother, and brother. She worked a variety of jobs, becoming a beloved coworker at each one. She often assigned special nicknames to everyone she loved. She enjoyed celebrating birthdays and loved surprising people with treasures she found while bargain shopping. She loved shoes and accessories, always dressed with style and bright color. There was never a dull moment when Nadine was around, and her joy will forever be an encouragement to those who were blessed to know her. Mrs. Nadine's honesty, joy, and wisdom will be missed, but her legacy will live on through her family that loves her immensely.

Funeral Services will be held on Tuesday, May 7, 2024, at 2:00, in the chapel of Haisten McCullough Funeral Home with burial to follow in the Westwood Gardens. Pastor Adam Vinson and Bro.
