“ *Ms. Becky, I have such fond memories of Blake at United Community Bank. He always had a ready smile and dry wit that kept us all laughing. I really enjoyed lunchtime in the breakroom when he'd talk about movies and other trivia. He was such a smart, well read man. I'm so sorry for your loss. My prayers are with you and your family. “ Becky and Stephen, we are heartbroken to hear of Blake's passing. We have so many great memories of youth and highschool soccer events and church functions. One of our favorite memories is from a soccer tournament in Athens when Blake filled up the back of his pickup with muddy and rain soaked boys and drove them to a laundry mat. Blake was such a positive influence on so many boys and helped them grow into fine young men. Sending back to ya'll is the the love and many hugs, handshakes and heartfelt greetings that Blake so generously shared with our family.
