“ I was so saddened to hear of Charlie’s passing. He was my friend from way back — Cherokee and before. When the Class of ‘63 graduated and went our separate ways, we stayed in touch the old-fashioned way, by writing letters! Then many of us were reunited at UGA and we shared many happy hours there. Then in our later years, the Class of ‘63 has had annual luncheons, always so much fun. Charlie will be missed, such a fun-loving guy and good friend and a DGD (d*m* good dawg)!

My first job “on my own” was with Charlie 51 years ago. He taught me a lot as a beginning Pharmacist. He remained a lifelong friend through the years. Rest in peace Charlie and thanks for the memories.
