“ The children of Harold and Carolyn Summers- Carol Griffith, Susan McDuffie, and Janet Young send their heartfelt condolences to Glynn, Randy and Dallas. Our parents were great friends, bridge partners and fishing buddies. Our mother, Carolyn, died three days before Charlotte, In the months before, she often asked about her. What a fine lady.

“ The children in Brazil loved Aunt Charlotte and were in awe of her white hair. This was on her first mission trip in 2006. She was a great lady and an inspiration to many. Love, Derry and Donna

“ I'm so pleased that I had the opportunity to meet Charlotte Rea several years ago. She had been invited for a Thanksgiving dinner. Indeed she and her husband did come - with the entire feast in tow! What a thoughtful, caring, warm individual she was. I'm so glad I had that opportunity to meet her May she rest in peace.

“ We met Mrs. Rea about 20 years ago when we moved nearby. She was so friendly and kind. She gave us starts from some of her shrubs. She was a very dear lady who is now even better than she has ever been.
Our condolences to her family.
