“ Hi, many of you may not know me, but my name is Tristan. My family knew Christina well. My mom and Christina were soul sisters until my mom passed away in 2023 at the age of 46. I also can't forget the bond they both shared with Scott. I'll always remember those house parties back in 2014. I wish I'd had the chance to see her again, but sometimes life just doesn't give us enough time. I have two special pictures of her. One of us together at my house, and another of her with my mom at our place. I like to believe they're dancing together in the sky now. ❤️🕊️

“ My daughter Annie Brown was taken from my arms at 43, 2 years ago from this disease. I did not meet Christina, but maybe Annie did, maybe she was touched by her, and maybe she missed out like alot of us who never met Christina. But this beautiful, and lovely, loving woman should have had more time to live her dreams like my Annie should have. I am so very, very, sorry for all her family and friends!! I am sorry this world will not have her here. She had love and sweetness and goodness and a wish for a better life. She was a beautiful lady, and I wish I could have been blessed to know her. God is with her, God be with all her family and friends, the world will miss Christina! Know God and Christina are together, she has no more pain, no more sickness, no more fears. Rest beloved, rest, God please send a cure!!!

“ Christina is my cousin so I've known her all of her life. (She was younger than I) She had to have been the strongest person I have ever known. She fought so hard and continue living life as she fought and didn't let it get her down. So many would give up and she never did. I know she fought to the end. I also know that she had so much love for her family - especially Joseph and his wife and kids. I am so happy that her grandbabies were able to know her and love her and spend time with her and I'm sure they will have great memories to talk about. Joseph and family, Christopher, Michael. Kathryn and Uncle Kurt - my heart hurts for all of you. She loved you all so much. May she rest in peace. Love Sharon

“ I'm so sad to see this, she was an amazing person. We met online when my sister passed who also had scleroderma. She was such a comfort to me in my time of loss being there for someone she didn't even know shows how big her heart really was.

She was an incredibly amazing person. Smart, sassy and quick witted. I am not surprised she offered such great comfort...it is who she was. And a WARRIOR!!!! She fought so hard and never accepted "no" to anything. She will be missed.

“ Thank you for the friendship we had for over 27 years. You were more than just a friend. You were always so wise beyond your years. You fought the largest battle that I've ever seen. You educated doctors with your wisdom. You loved your family so hard, it taught me to "be better". I know you're pain free in the Lords hands. Rest easy now and I'll see you again.

“Christina,
You welcomed me not just into your family, but into your heart. Thank you for the love and guidance that you have given me since the beginning of our time with each other. I will miss our daily calls and our all-day texts. Thank you for everything that you have taught me. You taught me many things over the years, and I will forever appreciate them. I am very glad that you were able to know and meet all your grandchildren. I will never live up to your grits and toast. “Mom, you just don’t make it like grandma!” You had the special touch. I will forever be grateful for the time we spent together, and I look forward to meeting you in the air one day. You loved and dedicated your life to your family and I will make sure to always take care of your family and to continue the traditions you held so dear. There were many that you created and they loved. I will always make sure they remember you. I promise to love and take care of Joseph. I know you loved him and the girls very much. I am one of the lucky ones to have gotten a wonderful mother-in-law. You were like a second mother to me and I will forever appreciate everything you helped and guided me through. Rest in Peace my sweet mother-in-law. Until we meet again, love you.

“ My wonder mother,

You have defied the odds and lived a life that's full despite all the setbacks and roadblocks placed before you. Your will to live for others and the sacrifices you made all the while was nothing short of incredible. You cared for and loved me like no one else could when you brought me into this world, and raised me up to start a family of my own giving you an amazing daughter in law and five beautiful granddaughters. We have made endless memories together and I thank you for all the love you gave me! Oh if I could go back and change anything it would have been sitting with you just a little while longer and laughing with you just a few more times or hugging you just a little while and letting you know how much I love you, love you more, plus one, two, or three, even to infinity I will always love you and yet somehow you'll always love me just a little more. When I lifted you up in my arms in your last moments, as you had lifted me in my first, I held you tight one last time and told you I'd love you for ever. As you sat in your chair comfortably watching me replay a happy memory of your mother playing with her great grandchildren, talking and laughing, you fell sleep into eternity to my song of Sweet Hour of Prayer and it indeed was,.. a sweet hour of prayer. You live on in my heart and I will see you again very soon, just as in a moment, like the twinkling of an eye when we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with everyone in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air, and you, me and all our loved ones we have prayed for shall forever be with the Lord.

Love you more,

- Joseph
