“ Our entire world changed on Tuesday. The world became a little less bright. A little less fun. Curt loved me as if I was his own for the last 7yrs, he was more that an in-law....he was the true meaning of a “dad”. He loved my boys just as they were also his own. I’m so thankful for the time we had together and all of the memories we made. Missing you like crazy pops. Just one more “jello”. I picked up my phone one evening and he had taken this selfie. Always lookin for fun.

“ My father once called me to his room. He said "sit down Pat, I have to tell you something, I need you to be ready". Me thinking the worst sat down and grabbed his hand. He looked at me with a grim look and said "Pat, I think I've regained my virginity". And that says everything about my wonderful father!

“ Curt was a great man. I was very lucky to have him in my life. No matter how bad of a day you had he lighted your day up just being around him. He was a hall of famer on the lanes but a hall of famer off the lanes as well. Love you Curt.
