

Delores Garrett Creech

October 21, 1957 - February 1, 2021

Delores Earline Garrett Creech, 63, formerly of Newnan, widow of Daniel Wayne “Danny” Creech passed away Monday, February 1, 2021 in Nashville, TN.

Born in Atlanta, October 21, 1957, she was the only daughter of six children to the late Harold and Earline Garrett. Mrs. Creech was a long-time employee with A&P Grocery Stores for eighteen years, serving as a Bakery & Deli Manager from where she retired when all the southern regional locations closed. She then went on to serve the public again for many years as a Rural Carrier in Fayetteville with the United States Postal Service until her final retirement from employment. She was very talented from a young age, playing piano and organ by ear and had served as church pianist and organist for many years. She was married for thirty-four years and raised three sons, was an excellent cook, a hard-worker, and a strong, brave, and tough as nails champion for her family. She had personality, energy, and a zeal for life that very few could match. She will always be greatly missed.

Mrs. Creech was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, and three brothers, Larry, Tommy and Kelly Garrett.

Survivors include three sons, Todd Creech and wife Heather of Newnan, Jeremy Creech and wife Cassie of West Point and Brandon Creech of Griffin; grandchildren, Anthony, Chelsea, Marli, Ayla, Hanna and Carolina Rose and her mother Dawn Derrick Creech; two brothers, Gary Garrett and wife Pam of Fayetteville and Stan Garrett and wife Joyce of Royston; and numerous nieces and nephews and extended family.

Funeral services for Delores Earline Garrett Creech will be conducted Sunday, February 7, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. from the Chapel of Haisten McCullough Funeral Home with the Reverend Doug Johnson officiating. A private interment will follow at a later date in Westview Cemetery in Atlanta.
