“ Joan and the rest of the family; I grieve along with you because of your loss. I cannot tell you that I know how you feel, because I do not. I can only tell you that the four close family members I recently lost in April, including my wife, were, and are still, a very sorrowful thing to have to endure, so I do feel much genuine sympathy for you. No matter how many comforting cliché's people tell you, the hurt is still very real. I have tried to grieve around like minded Christian people and even though the routine is now drastically different, I am trying very hard to maintain some sense of normalcy in my life with familiar activities and worship of God. I do not know if that will be good for you, but that is what is helping me. I pray that the Holy Spirit will be with you and in you all as you go through your time of sadness and always remember what Jesus said, "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted."
