

Denver Charles Perkins

July 17, 1974 - April 5, 2019

Denver Charles Perkins, passed away on April 5, 2019, at the age of 44. "DB" was born in Savannah, GA on July 17, 1974.

Denver was predeceased by his mother and step-father, Oralyn and Jimmy Fields; his grandparents, Charles and Emily Smith, his uncles, Louis Smith, Charles "Bubba" Smith, Charlie Hayes, and his cousin, Scot Evans.

He will be sadly missed by his three children, Brittney Lee Wyatt, Jacob Alexander Bethune, and William Kyle Tolar; his father and step-mother, David and Sherryl Perkins; sister, April (Tim) Prosser; step-brothers, Chris (Barbara), Brett (Valerie); step-sister, Jerrie (Craig) Grebeck; his uncle and aunt, Larry and Marie "Toni" Evans; his aunts, Charlene Hayes, Penny Smith, and Rosalyn Boren; and many cousins who loved him deeply.

The family will be honoring his life with a small ceremony and would like to thank you for your thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

Tribute Wall

“ Denver Charles Perkins

October 07, 2023 at 09:35 AM

“ I knew Denver when he was a child and he visited my home many times. He and my son were friends long ago. I was sad to hear of his death. My his family find peace and give each other comfort.

*Sincerely,
Rebecca Kent*

Rebecca Kent - April 18, 2019 at 08:14 PM

To the Family of Denver Perkins. Sorry for your loss. He joins his Mom Orarsalyn, Grandmother Emily Smith. Cousin Scot Evans. God Bless you all. Eleanor Sanders.

Eleanor Sanders - May 17, 2019 at 02:09 PM

I never really was allowed to talk to him, but Denver was my dad and I was sad to hear he died. I just wish I had gotten to know him.

Jacob Bethune - July 15, 2019 at 09:14 PM