“ Edie, Bill and family: I was saddened to hear the news of your mother's passing. I am so very sorry that I never met her. I know how much she meant to you all, and what a life she lived! If there is anything that Jennie, our family and I can do to help you and your extended family, do not hesitate to let us know. Please accept our most sincere and profound sympathy. All of you are very much still in my thoughts and prayers. Love and peace to you all, and to your mom's great and blessed soul.
