“ For Vance, Mrs. Nix, Amy & Vern, along with all the extended family of Fred ~

We offer our deepest condolences.

I met the Nix family from the start of my first schooling days at Orrs Elementary. Mrs. Nix was one of the four first grade teachers there & Mr. Nix went on to be one of the school principals~although Mrs. Nix wasn't my teacher, she was quite memorable.

Fred & my brother were classmates.

My husband & Fred became friends in the late 80's & boy oh boy, they both had some stories to tell, along with some I'm sure they couldn't tell.

Always always without fail, when Marty starts with "Fred & I".....get ready for a laugh 💙 ! 💙

May our God of laughter & love remind us ALL to seek true happiness & joy in EVERY DAY.

With care & prayer,

Liz & Marty King

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family. Fred worked with me at Friedman's Jewelers and was one of my favorite employees. He was always a fun person to be around. Although it has been years ago we kept up with each other. I was very proud of how he turned his life around. I know he's up there helping everyone out. Rest in Peace my friend.
