In loving memory of Gertrude (Trudi) Elise Klein 2/16/32 to 11/27/2021 & her husband/soul mate Daniel-Eugene Klein, 10/3/32 - 7/3/2020 foto on the ship where they first met.

Trudi passed away at the age of 89 at 8:30 am on Saturday Nov 27. She was able to spend time with her daughters Lori & Kellie, & granddaughter Katelyn before passing. She was suffering from Alzheimers & recurring breast cancer which metastasized throughout her body. She'd been suffering great pain. Trudi is now reunited with the love of her life, Dan Klein, her daughter Cindi Patrice, who lost her battle with breast cancer in July '99', her parents, Karl & Carolyn Schoch, & all our ancestors. Trudi was an only child born to 2 loving immigrant parents in New Jersey. Her Father, Karl, was a butcher & he & her Mother had a butcher shop in Carlstadt, N.J. with an apartment in the back where they lived. She was a very creative, musical & artistic person. As a member of the Carlstadt Törn hall, she played piano & accordion, sang in choirs, & acted in plays. She was also an active member of the U.S.O. supporting G.I.s during & after WWII & Korea. Trudi graduated from East Rutherford High School in N.J. After H.S., she left her father's shop to work for Electrolux vacuum cleaners & then as a Paralegal in Manhattan. On one of her long journeys by ship from Europe to N.Y.C., she met & later married the love of her life, an officer in the French Air Force, Dan E. Klein. During a long life together, they always volunteered to help others. They believed in fostering & adoption, & fostered & sponsored more than 20 children of all races, nations & abilities. Dan & Trudi lovingly raised 3 daughters, 1 son, & had 5 grandchildren, including Naomi, who passed away shortly after birth. As an adult, Trudi pursued her creative side, playing music, singing, sewing, teaching guitar, caning, quilting painting, & more. She could do anything she put her mind to with perfection! She spoke German 1st, then English, French, Alsacean, Spanish & a little Japanese. Though the art, music & love she shared will live on, Trudi will be deeply missed by all who were blessed with knowing her.
