“ In the 90's into the 2000's, myself and James "Bubba" Turnipseed (RIP) worked for "Miss Gladys" repossessing vehicles from debtors that didn't pay her. Miss Gladys was a hoot. I remember her at the place on Experiment street (tall roof building) to the jewelry store by Krystals, to finally the store on Broad street.

I had been trying to get in touch with her for the past few years, the store was closed, she wasn't at the house down Broad st from the store. I wish I had known she was at Brightmoor. I hated to find this today, I was thinking about her, and found this.

Rest in peace, Miss Gladys. Was sure fun working with you back in the day. We had a great time. Love you!!

“ Cynthia, Larry and Becky,
We were sorry to learn of your mother's passing. We always enjoyed visiting with her at Brightmoor. She would always greet us when we saw her in the hall. She was always so elegantly dressed, and we really enjoyed recalling past times during our visits.
