“ Great times visiting with Harold at all the karate classes while my son Dan & Harold's grand daughter Ashly took karate together. I enjoyed going supporting Dan, but Harold (Grandpa as we called him) & I chatted & had the best time. When karate ended, Harold would still stay in touch inviting us to their church for the big 4th of July concerts & fireworks displays. He would also from time to time call me just to check on us to see how we were doing. I looked forward to his calls, Always a pleasure to talk with. I have missed our karate days, but now, even more, I will miss receiving those random calls from such a good friend! Harold will be so missed! I Absolutely Loved that he stayed in touch with me...Love, Jan Rice
