“ Jackie was such a delight in our Young at Heart group. She taught us how to play "chicken foot". We all got excited when we won, but we also enjoyed Jackie winning. She really enjoyed beating Pastor Ken. She was a true Southern Lady, always had a positive attitude and kind words for everyone. We missed her when she went to Barnesville to live. We love you Jackie.

“ Aunt Jackie was Nick's very special aunt. He has memories of fishing with her on Long Pond and the Drive In movies in Atlanta. For me, she was my friend. We would share many a laugh when she would stay with us for spells. Chicken Foot was a DAILY occurrence where she would ask how each family member was OR tell US what she knew. Her memory was SO SHARP! We will miss you so very much, Aunt Jackie.
