“Daddy, I dont know what to do without you. Im all alone and I look for you everywhere. My heart hurts but I am comforted that your body no longer aches. Thank you for this beautiful home and for all you told me as you tried to battle the demon that is Cancer. I did all I could to save you Daddy- I DID! It just wasnt to be. I will never forget your integrity and need to question everything. Hold on a little longer for one day I'll be heading up. Thank you for raising me right. You did a good thing- you invested in me and my life will never be normal again now that you are gone. First Mama, Joe, Buffie and now you... I must work hard to heal. Thank you for making me tough. I LOVE YOU DADDY! Rest well my loving and credible father.

“I worked with Mr. Blackstone in the detention center at the Spalding County Sheriff's Office until I went to the patrol division. Mr. Blackstone loved his job and his work family. He was like a second dad to me and was always there through the good and bad times. He loved his family and would talk about them often. He also cared about my family and would ask about them every time I spoke with him. Rest easy my friend you will truly be missed.
