

James Franklin Cooper

February 6, 1953 - April 8, 2025

James Franklin “Frank” Cooper, 72, of Griffin, died Tuesday, April 8, 2025, at Wellstar Spalding Regional Hospital.

Born in Atlanta, February 6, 1953, he was a son of the late Charles Alfred Cooper, Jr. and Shirley Jean Howell Cooper. A US Air Force Veteran, Frank formerly worked on Oil Riggs in Texas and Cooper and Son Insurance Company. He attended Southern Crescent Technical College. Frank was serious about his faith. He always had a smile on his face and always made others feel good when they saw him. He treated others with love and respect and enjoyed giving and getting hugs.

He was a member of First Baptist Church of Griffin where he was also a member of the Long Sunday School Class.

He is survived by two brothers, Johnny L. Cooper and Charles E. “Ed” Cooper; one niece; four nephews; several great nieces and great nephews; and countless special friends, who were like family, he made through his membership at First Baptist Church of Griffin.

A celebration of Frank Cooper’s life will be conducted Saturday, April 26, 2025, at 11:00 AM in the Bramblett Chapel at First Baptist Church with Reverend Steven Norris officiating.

In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to First Baptist Church of Griffin Endowment Foundation, Inc., PO Box 908, Griffin, GA 30224 in memory of Frank.

For online condolences please visit www.haistenmcculloughfuneralhome.com.

Haisten McCullough Funeral Home, 1155 Everee Inn Road, Griffin is in charge of arrangements.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

APR 26. 11:00 AM (ET)

Bramblett Chapel at First Baptist Church of Griffin
106 West Taylor Street
Griffin, GA

Tribute Wall

AA

“ Johnny and family,
Frank had a smile and a compliment every time I saw him. He was very kind and appreciated anything that was done for him. He is certainly going to be missed!! I will especially miss the E-cards he sent on all occasions.
Rest in peace Frank.
Audrey

Audrey Allen - April 26, 2025 at 09:14 PM