

James Kenneth Cox

November 25, 1947 - March 31, 2026

James Kenneth Cox, 78, of Griffin, Georgia, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, March 31, 2026.

He was born on November 25, 1947, in Griffin, to the late Austin and Madlyn Cox. He was also preceded in death by his brother, Robert “Bob” Cox.

He is lovingly remembered by his son, Ryan Cox of Griffin, Georgia; his daughter, Catherine Cox of Fort Walton Beach, Florida, and her partner, John Secord Jr.; his cherished grandchildren, Slater and Sawyer Secord; and his sister, Marilyn Cox Tinnermon of Birmingham, Alabama.

Kenneth worked for most of his life as a forklift operator. Outside of work, he enjoyed watching football, camping, visiting historic places, and attending local motorsport events. He will be remembered for his quiet, steady presence and the understated way he cared for those around him.

The family will hold a private remembrance and are not hosting a public service. Those who wish to honor Kenneth’s memory are encouraged to make a donation to a local nonprofit or charity of their choice.

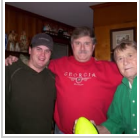

He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ So sorry to learn of Kenneth's passing. I knew Kenneth for a long time as he was a neighbor to my Aunt Grace Head. He was friends with my brother and visited our house many times. He helped teach me how to drive and even took me to get my driver's license when he thought I was good enough. He was a good guy. I have fond memories of him. Of course, everyone called him Snake.
