Oh, what a grand time it was going through high school with Paul as my best friend. All the laughter and love with his family was Pulitzer. We were all drafted during the Vietnam era and Paul chose the Navy. It is a great privilege to have found such a wonderful friend during our passing through this reality. The Gooch family are such a wonderful memory and inspiration for me to do better. Love all.

Sandra, Paul, Clint and Linda took us in as friends when we first came to Atlanta. They were our teachers in Sunday School and Training Union. That was over 50 years ago. What great friends and family God BLESSED us with. Paul will be missed but we will see him again. Love y'all
