“ It's been a long time since I have seen MeeMaw but I have so many childhood memories with her and Peepaw. We spent so much time at their house. I will never forget the time we spent as a family. The blizzard of '93, all the Christmas'. I still have the toy box that PeePaw made, I remember when they got that swimming pool and we spent so much time in it. I wish we could go back sometimes. Rest in Peace MeeMaw. I know you're glad to hug PeePaw again. Love always,
Mandee

“ I moved in with my Memaw right out of high school and I'll never forget those nights we stayed up playing rummy and talking about her siblings and when she lived in Missouri. Before I come home from work I would always call and ask if she wanted me to pick up supper. Always yes, and I did it no question because she'd always do the same for me. She was more than just my memaw, she was my other mother figure. We laughed and watched golden girls, I love Lucy, and her westerns. Those memories will stay with me forever and she'll have a place in my heart with pepaw.
