“ The Celebration of Life Service on Thursday, January 28, expressed so well all that I felt about our precious Jason. He was in deed a very special gift from God. With all the challenges he had to face, he never complained, he always greeted us with a sincere smile and really cared about others with genuine love.

Thank you, Janice and Alan for sharing Jason with us. He was a joy and an inspiration to us. We are prayerfully asking God to continue comforting you and your family while you are grieving and to give you peace and hope.

With Much Love, Bobby and Phyllis Henderson

“ I met Jason when he and his mom, Janice, started coming to Faith Fellowship. He is a delight... Witty, full of joy and always ready to say 'Amen" at everything I am teaching. His heart was full of love that he so generously gave away. You will be missed...

“ I am so very sorry to learn of Jason's passing. I have not seen him since I was a little girl, but he has always been remembered. My family used to live a couple houses down from the Maddox's in Griffin. My brother Marty would always hang out at his house. I remember always seeing a smile on Jason's face. May God provide peace and comfort to all of his family and friends. My prayers are with each of you. ---Amanda Reese
