

Jerry Walker Hollberg

September 19, 1944 - February 19, 2025

Jerry Walker Hollberg passed away on February 19, 2025, at his home in Griffin, Georgia. He was preceded by his mother Emma Bealer Walker and his father Marsh Douglas Hollberg.

Jerry was a loving husband, father, brother and grandfather. He was an avid fisherman, hunter and outdoorsman. Camping and cooking were his passions. He was always happy to teach kids how to fish and often helped them catch their first fish. He was a graduate of Hampden DuBose Academy and attended Columbia Bible College.

Jerry's career was as a jewelry designer and salesman, which fit his personality perfectly. He was a perfectionist with a keen eye for design. Jerry always had entertaining stories and was excellent at working with clients. He made everyone feel special.

He leaves behind his wife of 60 years, Cynthia Hollberg; daughters, Michelle Hollberg and Katherine Mialkowski (husband) Roger Mialkowski; brothers, Douglas Hollberg, Bill Hollberg (wife) Shirley Hollberg and Sinclair Hollberg; grandchildren Victoria and Stephen Dragstedt and Lily Mialkowski; and, of course, Teddy, his beloved cat.

A memorial service for Jerry Walker Hollberg will be conducted Saturday, March 29, 2025, at 2:00 PM at First Baptist Church of Griffin with Reverend Steven Norris officiating.

The family will receive friends immediately following the service in the church sanctuary.

“ Jerry was my best trout fishing buddy and shooting partner. One of the few people that I've ever known who could absolutely survive and thrive alone in the woods. He was like a brother to me and I miss him every day. He went on a number of vacations with us and was going again to the mountains in April. He will be greatly missed. Rest in peace my brother 🙏
