“ For Kevin and Krista. From Lanette, your mother's hairdresser. When I think of your mother I see bright colors she wore, funky jewelry and walking stick. She exuded cheerfulness, friendliness and encouragement. She always mentioned your father and her children and how proud she was of all. I think of hummingbird cake, cool whip desserts and how she could recite from memory every recipes to everyone in the salon.

She shared the desserts she made not only with us but her neighbors. Took homemade dinners to neighbors in need and carried them to appointments and ran errands for them.

We sold hundreds of beautiful masks she made in my salon and many of our customers recognized and adored her as she fulfilled custom orders for them, always cheerfully. Often giving away masks free of charge to those elderly folks who were on limited budgets.

I admired her endless energy and devotion to her aunts.

When I heard of her passing, I was shocked; then sad. But on my way from home that night, I said out loud, "Good for you, Cassandra, you go girl." Knowing she is now reunited with her husband and better off than all of us. And happy knowing I will see her again one day in her new glorified body.

I miss her.

“ What a blessing this lady has been to me. I loved her spunkiness, kindness, determination, faith, understanding, compassion, so many things. She was one of those people I just felt good after seeing her. I and her entire Sunday School class will miss her greatly. My condolences to her family. ”
