

Larry Dewayne Carden

October 7, 1965 - December 5, 2021

Larry Dewayne Carden, 56, of Douglasville, husband of Michelle Lea Simpson Carden died Sunday, December 5, 2021, at Wellstar Douglas Hospital. Born in East Point, October 7, 1965, he was the son of Robert Lee Carden and the late Ruthie Mae Shepperd Carden. Mr. Carden was a lifelong employee of his family's glass company Carden Glass. He was a person who could do anything he set his mind to doing. He enjoyed playing guitar and loved building and restoring cars. He built race cars and often raced at Seven Flags Speedway.

In addition to his mother, Mr. Carden was recently preceded in death by a sister, Tonya Lynn Borden.

Surviving in addition to his wife and father and stepmother, Patricia of Douglasville are six daughters, Jessie Carden of Douglasville, Brooke Carden and husband Ronnie O'Donnell of Ackworth, Heather Ledbetter of Columbus, Brittany Rowan and husband Tyler of Virginia, Candace Ramsey of Douglasville and Tylyn Hatchell of North Carolina; five grandchildren; and several aunts, uncles and cousins also survive.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 2:00 PM at Hightower's Memorial Chapel in Douglasville with Reverend Terry Marbut officiating. The family will receive friends at Hightower's Family Funeral Home in Douglasville from 1:00 PM until the service hour.

For online condolences please visit www.haistenmcculloughfuneralhome.com. Haisten McCullough Funeral Home, 1155 Everee Inn Road, Griffin is in charge of arrangements.

Previous Events

Visitation

DEC 9. 1:00 PM - 2:00 PM (ET)

Hightower's Memorial Chapel
12651 Veterans Memorial Highway
Douglasville, GA 30134

Service

DEC 9. 2:00 PM (ET)

Hightower's Memorial Chapel
12651 Veterans Memorial Highway
Douglasville, GA 30134

Tribute Wall

“ Larry Dewayne Carden

October 07, 2023 at 09:35 AM

“ Jose A. purchased the Sentiments of Serenity Spray for the family of Larry Dewayne Carden.

Jose A. - December 08, 2021 at 09:14 AM