“ Mom I just know that every day something is going to come up that reminds me of you. I was telling Candice that all of you have the knack for being humorous in every situation. I can only imagine the things you would be saying if you were down here with this crew of yours right now. They for sure got it from you. Queen of sarcasm, unfiltered yet so oddly traditional. I love you and don't worry...I will keep my promises. -Cheese, Kessa, The favorite😂

“ I am sorry for your loss. A mother gives her life to her family. With her gone, you will always see her when you look into the mirror. As you go through the sorrow of loss, live through the grief with the grace of gratitude for a life well lived.

“ Laura put in a good word for me at a hospice facility years ago, and I got the job. Then about a year later, I had moved onto another hospice, and I put in a good word for her, and she got the job. I received a 1000.00 bonus and so Did Laura. She was a friend and a hard worker. Both of us RN's. She will be missed.

“ Laura was one of the very first ladies to befriend me, when Life Church was World Harvest Ministries. That friendship continued as we attended Life Church and after. We had just moved to Griffin. She loved the Lord, and she loved people. She always gave the best hugs. She loved her family dearly and will be dearly missed. Praying for your sweet family. We are so sorry for your loss.

“ The first thing I always think of is when we were all riding back from the mall in the little red car and Bohemian Rhapsody came on. All three of them, Laura, Candice, and Jamie burst into song, taking parts, and singing to their hearts content. What a crew! I love you guys and I am so sorry for this loss.
