

Lawrence Raymond (Larry) Davis

December 9, 1954 - December 25, 2020

Lawrence Raymond Davis (Larry), 66, of Flowery Branch, Georgia, died Friday, December 25, 2020.

Born in Atlanta, GA, December 9, 1954, Larry Davis was the son of late Paul Jones Davis and Juanita Christine Sumner Davis. He graduated from the University of Georgia as well as Georgia State University with degrees from both schools. Larry was an active member of Boys Scouts of America as a young man and he also served as a leader as an adult. Larry also was active for many years in the Toastmasters organization. He worked in the real estate industry as an agent and broker but spent most of his time as a real estate appraiser with Larry Davis Appraisal, Inc.

Larry Davis was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in Flowery Branch, Georgia where he held many different responsibilities. Larry spent many years living life to the fullest each day with hiking, sports, scouts, competitive dancing and spending time with his family. He was an avid Georgia Bulldog fan and would travel near and far to make sure he did not miss a game.

Survivors include his two sons, Evan Louis Davis and Ethan Paul Davis; former wife, Erin Thacker Davis; his two sisters, Raven Davis and Teena Lynn Davis; his brother, Paul Jones Davis and wife Pat; and several nieces and nephews.

Due to the circumstances of COVID, a memorial service will not be held. Condolences may be sent to his two sons, Evan Davis and Ethan Davis, at 1564 Cherry Ridge Drive, Lake Mary, Florida 32746. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials be made to a charity of their choice in Larry's honor.
