

Dr. Mark Vann Stewart

August 25, 1961 - September 25, 2025

Dr. Mark Vann Stewart, age 64, of St. Marys, Georgia, passed away peacefully on September 25, 2025. Mark was born in Griffin, GA to Millard Lee Stewart, Jr. and Elizabeth "Anne" Lord Stewart.

Mark was a devoted husband, father, brother, and friend. He shared 32 loving years of marriage with his wife, Susie Swarts Stewart, and a proud father to his son, Adam Christopher Stewart. Mark is survived by his mother Anne, his brothers, Mel Stewart (Sandi) of Edmond, OK, his twin brother, Clark Stewart (Karen) of Lehi, UT and a host of loving cousins, nieces, nephews, and great nieces and nephews.

Mark's love for his family was unwavering, and his presence brought warmth, laughter, and kindness to all who knew him.

Mark loved the Lord, his family, golf and the Georgia Bulldogs. Throughout his life, Mark touched many with his generous spirit, quiet strength and faithful service through his church, The Church of Eleven22. Whether spending time with loved ones, offering a helping hand, or simply sharing a smile, he lived with sincerity and compassion.

Mark received his Bachelor of Science degree at the University of Georgia. He continued his education and received his Masters and Specialist Degrees of Education at Valdosta State University. Mark completed his education by obtaining his EdD at the University of Sarasota. Dr. Stewart served Camden Co. Schools for over 30 years as a teacher, coach, administrator and Assistant Superintendent, before accepting a new challenge as Asst.

Superintendent of Operations for Coastal Plains High School.

He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by his family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing him.

A Celebration of Life was held Tuesday, September 30, 2025, at 12:00 Noon at Kingsland First Baptist Church, 295 E. Chester Street, Kingsland, GA.
