“ It is with great sadness to hear of Mr. St. Clair's passing. Many a night I spent at the St. Clair house as a young boy and always was treated as one of his own. I was sad when he moved his family to Savannah many years ago, but overjoyed when he returned them to Griffin as he brought one of my best friends with him. I am sure the family will miss him dearly, but oh what a family he leaves behind. We can be at peace knowing that one day we will see him again.
