“ Just got a beautiful piece done by you back in September while my wife and I were down there from Boston. Even though we only met you once, you made an impact on our lives. R.I.P. my friend

“ “Shack,”
You were such a sweet soul. It had been way too long since I talked to you, but your memory will always be so vivid. The summer of 2004, just 6-8 of us crashing on the floor of your room looking up at all of those records on the ceiling!
You were an anomaly! A talented, crazy independent, social norm debunking live wire.
Your family was so special to me, as were you. I will never forget you. My husband has HOURS of your talent on him and a precious portfolio that you made especially for him. We both look at it and remember how talented you were, and how blessed he is to wear your art. We love you Shack!
