“ I send my prayers to the whole Miller family. Mrs Pat was my Piccadilly mom. She was always so sweet and caring to everyone. She was always great to all of us teenagers. She gave me good advice, and just so easy to talk to. I know she will be truly missed by everyone. I was glad I found her on Facebook a few years back, just so I could talk to her again. I know she is with Ken and the angles now. Prayers

*“ I have known Pat since I was 12 years old. I married into the family and had the pleasure of knowing this sweet soul. Pat was a wise and caring woman who loved her husband Ken and her sons dearly. She will surely be missed. Pat is singing with the angels with all the breath in her body no more suffering!
My condolences to Steven, Ricky and Jimi along with the rest of the family.*
