Randy and I met in 2010 at his daughters birthday party and we became friends and family when you hear a guy would give you the shirt off of his back he has many times he was truly a kind and gentle man and the one thing he loved more than life itself was his daughter Madison no matter where she lived he was always going to share her birthday with her I can't think of one he missed and I am sure nothing was going to keep him from making sure she was in good hands so Madison's husband has some big shoes to stand in because no one will ever fill them he will be truly missed

“ Randy is my cousin and I had a lot of memories with him. He was good hearted and would anyone he could Randy always saw good in everyone even if they didn't. He will be greatly missed. I'm so glad I had these last few weeks with him, I'm so glad God answered his prayers to be able to walk Madison (daughter) down the aisle. Till we meet again. I love you.

“ Randy was a very dear and cherished friend of mine. During the past 12 years of knowing him, we shared much laughter and also serious topics...such as struggles with Life in general. I will always be grateful for the help/support he provided to me in many and various ways, the enjoyable times shared together just talking about everything and anything, and also for the kind and generous soul he was. Randy will always hold a very special place in my heart and will never be forgotten.
Randy...I'll sincerely miss you!!
