“ Where do I even begin? You were such a good friend to me. No matter when I called on you or you called on me we always made it work. You were a light on a dreary day with that infectious laugh and heart as big as Texas. You went without a shirt often and I'd always say it was because you gave somebody yours off your back. Nine times out of 10 I was right. Your heart could be too big for your own good sometimes. It just makes no sense. You are missed and loved by so many. Rest easy my friend. Relax, slow down, and go rest high on that mountain.

“Woody, where to begin, from the very first time to came to my home until the last time I got to hear you say I love you. You will be missed by far more than most will realize. You were the type of man to give the shirt off your back to help someone whether you knew them personally or not. You always made us laugh. To your family thank you for sharing such a wonderful man with us. You guys are in my thoughts and prayers. Until we meet again my brother, Rest in peace. Give my Daddy a hug for me and tell I love him. I love you Woody
