“ I remember the very first time I met Sis. Ruth Wood, I met her at Family Dollar, or Dollar general, I cant remember which. But she invited me to come visit, and so I did. Sis. Wood is a lady to remember so soft spoken, kind, and so full of Jesus. You will be very missed Sis. Wood, but I am glad you no longer here to suffer.

“ Sister Ruth, mother of my best childhood friend Roy, and his siblings, was so sweet and a Godly woman. Ruth was always pleasant, but had a firm hand leading her children (and me) on the right path. She would correct Roy and I when we needed it. I thought the world of her. A Saint was just added to Heaven.

Thank you David for sharing your memories of our mother. Yes, she did her best to steer us all in the right direction. She used to pray that God would lead us to His people. And God did. She taught us by example to pray, fast and depend on God. Im thankful for her Godly example.
