“ Bro. Ron, I remember when we were setting up our Sunday school room. Painting the walls and having different color chairs. Sis. Sandy always telling me and Charlie to be quiet and listen up. She was and still is a special lady of God. Love you my friend.

“ The very first memory I have of Sister Sandy is her first service at Northwest Pentecostal Church. She and Ron had just gotten married and came back from Texas . I have gone to many church services and church related activities with her over the last 53 years . She was our son and daughters sunday school teacher . These last few years we have lived nearby. I would see her out shopping and in case you were wandering "did she always dress nice and fix her hair "? My answer would be a resounding yes. She was a lady and great example. She had a heart of gold. Last year when my husband and I were sick she called to see if there was anything we needed . She will be missed.

“ Gone way too soon! Sandy Hurst was such a sweet, Godly woman. I always enjoyed talking with her! My favorite memory with her that I wanted to share was when I asked to borrow one of her gorgeous brooches to wear at Exalt ever year. She would bring her collection to me in a little gift bag with tissue paper and it quickly became a fun tradition to pick one out. If you knew Sandy, she always wore a beautiful brooch on her outfits. I will always remember that sweet sentiment with her. Always praying for the family to stay strong and know that she's gained a wonderful reward in Heaven!
