

Sara Duke Bond

November 19, 1922 - December 12, 2021

Sara Duke Bond, age 99, was called home peacefully on December 12, 2021. Born in Cedartown, GA to Susie and Paul Duke, She married P.A. Bond, Jr. Their marriage lasted 63 years until his passing, and yielded a daughter, Martha Bond Bowers, and son R. Allen Bond.

She moved to Griffin, GA in 1964. A very social person, she enjoyed her many friends, painting, needlework and crafting, flower arranging (she owned a florist shop in Cedartown), women's clubs, garden clubs, bridge, crosswords and other word games, and her church (First Baptist Church of Griffin) where she frequently did the altar flowers.

She is survived by son R. Allen Bond of Marietta, grandsons Bates Bowers III of Johns Creek and Paul Bond of Marietta, and granddaughter Heather Bond of Lilburn, as well as two great granddaughters and a great grandson.

She was the heart of our family and will be greatly missed, but we are happy she is in her new home!

A private, family-only graveside service will be held in Griffin at a future date. In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts are welcomed for her church, First Baptist Church of Griffin.

“ What a wonderful lady. My Mother and Sara were friends. We lived next door to Sara and P. A. Bond while I was growing up. I will always remember what a creative person Sara was and how hard she and the ladies in the Noweta Garden Club in Cedartown, worked to win all those club ribbons. Those times are dear to me and I shall always remember Sara as the gracious and energetic person she was. I know heaven opened its gates wide to welcome her.

“ I shall miss Ms Sara so very much. We had visited and shared Holy Communion regularly for years at the Woods. So much good conversation. Always interested in what was happening in the world. She shared her family joys and worries each visit. She told me last year that she was so blind and deaf that I didn't need to visit any more, suggesting she was a waste of time. I told her we could just hold hands and be together; so that's what we did. When I would take her hand upon arrival, she knew immediately who I was. We just held hands, together. I shall miss her so very much. Cathy
