“ I know its been a long time but I still think of her often. She was a bright soul, im grateful for every time we got to hang out many years ago. Im forever grateful for each invite to church she sent me. I will forever miss you sky. You were an amazing bright light and I just know you're the brightest star. I promise we will all remember you, even now 6 years later I come to write again because you are never forgotten.

“ I know it's been 6 years since heaven called Skylar home but I wasn't able to writing anything without tearing up. I didn't know Skylar on a personal level but shared a good bit of classes together. She was one of the sweetest people I've ever encountered. Always had a smile on her face. She lit up the room when she walked in. The first to laugh. While her time here on Earth was cut short, I know that she is smiling down from above. I am so thankful I got to know her and be in her presence.

“ Hi I’m Sage McBee and I’m 13. I was Skylars best friend and I love her very much. I think what I loved most about her was her laugh. She could brighten my day within seconds of her laughter, she was beautiful and had a heart of gold. We went to school together since I came to Georgia in 3rd grade and became friends around 4th. I knew she was going to be something great. She used to call me and sing to me over the phone and tell me how she wanted to go on American idol. She’s wanted that for years. And wanted me there. Though I moved at the end of seventh grade 2019 and moved to Florida, I never forgot her laugh. She was incredible. Her face I could never forget. I cried and cried hearing she passed away. It tour me up inside and all I wanted to do was run because I couldn’t say goodbye. But I can now. I love you skylar, my soul sister, and Rest In Peace because I know you are with your dad now. That’s all you wanted. And I pray prayers of hope and growth as we have to move forward.

“ It was a rare day when Skylar wasn't smiling. She was a sweet young lady who worked hard and tried her best! She was a wonderful student and young lady. I'll never forget it was early in the school year and she had been really trying hard to keep up with the current unit and really "get it." When test time came she made an 88, second highest grade in the class, and when I let her know she got the biggest, sweetest, smile on her face. I think that she beamed with pride for a week! Skylar will be missed...and I'll remember all the good!

“ Skylar was one of the sweetest girls we've ever known. Every Sunday we looked forward to her hugs. She looked forward to ringing the church bell every Sunday, and Claude even affectionately called her the church ding-al-ing. She was loved deeply by everyone who knew her and she will definitely be missed. Heaven has gained what we have lost. Prayers for the family. ”
