“ When I moved back to Griffin in the 7th grade Fritz was one of the first I made friends with. Fritz and I really hit it off while fishing together. I spoke to him for the first time in years 3 days before he passed. I can never remember a time when he had a bad word to say about anyone. I will always remember his smile and his love for life. Rest In Peace Buddy

“ Fritz and I became best friends in the 10th grade. We shared the same sense of humor and a love for dirt bikes. He taught me about sailing and I tried to teach him about drumming. We drifted apart over the years going different directions, but I've always kept a special place for the memories of the cool stuff we did together.
