“ Heidi, Diana, Briella, Esther, Jacob, and all your extended family, No words are sufficient at a time like this--but I hurt for all of you, and I know God does too. Lots of love and prayers and thoughts and tears as you grieve the loss of such a lovely man.

I remember many years ago Max offered to give me some chicken manure for my garden. I drove my Ford pickup down to your house and Max had his helpers fill the truck bed, heaping it high-- in fact, he loaded it up until the truck was too heavy to drive and the guys had to take some out! He was so anxious to make sure I had all I needed that the poor truck could barely handle it, and I had to drive all the way back home VERY slowly in case I had a blowout. He loved helping and sharing with anyone, was generous beyond words, and loved Jesus--that's what I remember about Max. A beautiful legacy.
