Phillip Cole, was such an amazing,extrodinary, very smart, person. I saw him a few times through the years and he always knew how I was. I have know him since I was about 63 or 64. We are the same age. When I was a little girl,no matter where I saw him he would start laughing then crab and hug me. Bro. or Sis. Cole would get him,all he wanted was for you to love him and he wanted you to know he loved you. He was a beautiful person in and out that you just could not forget, or love,he was always so happy to see someone.I don't think he ever forgot anyone. One day he will walk the streets of gold, shaking hands with men of old and walking beside his dad and grand dad as perfect as can be,and I do believe it won't be long. Phillip, you have run the race, you have fought in your life time ,battles no one could see, but all those days are over. It won't be long you will be running those streets of gold,dancing around the throne of God. I remember when singing would start ,oh how excited you would get. Oh how you worshipped God in your own beautiful way.God be with the Cole family, he is your comfort,he will give strength,peace,and comfort. You are forever in my thoughts and prayers.

Sis, Cole, you are in my thoughts and prayers. Phillip wasn't someone you could ever forget and I do not think he ever forgot people he knew. So many could have learned some lessons from him. He had the most beautiful spirit, attitude, kindness, and the love he had and showed. When ever I think of Phillip, I have always thought he would be like Johnathan (in the Bible). I do not know why but for some reason I could picture Johnathan as Phillip. Sis. Cole, you and Bro. Cole raised a sweet, beautiful, loving, and the most amazing person. He is now going home, he will soon be with his Father, his dad, grand dad, and so many others. The next time you see him, he will be dancing around the throne of God, shaking hands and giving those big hugs, that only he could give. with all those gone on before. You could tell he had a heart full of love and wanted to share that love. What a beautiful person Phillip Cole is, was always will be. Phillip also had the most beautiful family who loved him so much and showed him. His brothers who would have been there and was in a heart beat. I remember when Joy was born ,,oh he loved her. One year at Georgia Camp Meeting, he wanted everyone to know he had a baby sister. In his way he was telling everybody. Such a beautiful, and an honor to have known Phillip Cole and to have been his friend.
