“ I was saddened to hear today of Wade's recent passing. I last spoke with him in mid-August when I was home for my 40th high school reunion. Previously he had given my mom a DVD of "Driving Miss Daisy" to give to me and I wanted to give him something in return so I had brought a bag of Mr. Pete's pecans from Brunswick, GA to give to him and another bag for his sister, Marsha. Even though she was in Atlanta, I was hoping he would be able to get them to her for me. He said he wasn't feeling well and our phone conversation was cut short. My thoughts and prayers are with his sister, Marsha, and their family and friends and caretaker, Anselma (I hope I spelled her name right). Sincerely, Ansley Scoville and the Scoville Family

“ This is heartwrenching news. I have so many fond memories of Farley, as we called him way back when, from our time in the GHS Dramatics Club. Such a sweet soul. I will never forget the comforting words that he spoke to me when my Daddy died in 2005. My condolences to his family and all who loved and cherished Wade.

“My heart is broken! Wade was my friend! We had many years of memories and adventures together. He was full of information about many subjects. We could talk about anything! He loved going to yard sales, estate sales and auctions. He loved collecting old vintage items of all kinds. We went to festivals, chili cook offs, fairs and many car shows. He enjoyed working on cars and tractors, growing things and his animals. He enjoyed music, radios and military history, particularly WW1 and WW2. We had many fun and funny memories together. He spent many birthdays and Christmas's with our family for many years. We enjoyed bowling and dancing together. He also enjoyed fishing, kayaking, canoeing and white water rafting. He was a pilot and he worked on planes. He enjoyed teaching automotive to anyone that listened. He went on mission trips. He attended church regularly and always had his scriptures with him. There is so much I could share about my friend! We loved him as part of our family and he will be greatly missed forever and always! Always in our hearts and Loved by Rowena Langley, Justin, Ashley and Boone Langley, Austin and Ashley
