“ We lived across the street from Gloria and Bill for many years and also went to church with them. Bill was a godly man. I remember when we had a big ice storm and several large pine trees fell across our driveway, we heard a chain saw and Bill was out there cutting the trees up. I have lots of good memories of all the Leverette family.

Thank you Jacki. The preacher who spoke actually mentioned this during the service. Lynn and I knew right away where he found the memory! It was special.
